Winner selection and notification

- Competition scoring is at the discretion of the M&G Fixed Interest team.
- The first prize winner will be the entry with the highest score. In the event of a tie the winner will be selected randomly from all entries that achieve the same highest score. The remainder of the entries that achieved the same highest score will be selected as one of the four runners up..
- The four runner up prize winners will be the four entries with the next highest scores or where there is a tied first prize position, the next highest scores. In the event of a tie for the four runner up prizes the winners will be selected randomly.
- The Promoter will notify the winner by 31 January 2010. If the prize is declined or if the prize winner cannot be contacted from the details supplied, a supplementary winner may be drawn at the Promoter's discretion. The original entry that was drawn will then be forfeited.
- Unless requested by the winner to the contrary, M&G may publish the winner's surname and places of business for promotional purposes.
- The Promoter's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
